Are you people crazy???
Ali Hassan is a trader not just to our party but to our country.

I know him personally - he doesn't stand for one thing that the Republican party does. He has always been a liberal but ran Republican hoping to get voted in.

Boy, this is like endorsing Dan Maes all over again, no one takes responsibility for obviously NO RESEARCH by your group.

Do you believe in same sex marriage? Do you believe in the Muslims taking over American? Do you think after bringing terror to our nation that their should be a Muslim temple at Ground Zero? Do you believe that women should be covered and have no voice, be treated like animals? Not to mention his movie making and his family supporting 62, 63 and 101, that fortunately people voted down.

His mouth has two sides - one of what a person wants to hear and one that is what he truly believes.

I highly suggest you do some research and find out the truths about this guy. Because of his Daddy and money we now have another socialist for Governor and 4 more years of liberal governing.

I can't believe this - who is responsible for this action?????? This isn't going to set well with any Republican I know, that's for sure.

Does Joe Nunez or Bob Martinez know about this???
A concerned Republican Conservative.

Patricia,

You really think Hassan is a Muslim trying to take over America?
Whatever happened to FREEDOM OF RELIGION?

Who is Nunez and Martinez? I never heard of them personally, but our State Director may know them.

Freedom of Religion is our country's asset, not taking over the country. Both Joe and Bob have been great leaders in our party through the history of our state, both are outstanding individuals, Joe was in DC for years, and was a House Representative and his wife Lilly is our State National Committee woman.

I believe Bob was state party chair at one time. They both are outstanding people and I'm surprised you don't know who either of them are. I know that Joe has been involved with the Hispanic Republican party and done a lot of work with it.

Ali is not a Republican and I hope he stays where he is, with the liberals.

I'm sorry that we don't know each other as I'm sure you are a good person, I'm just in shock of this press release and I've had it forwarded to me by 7 people today.

If you are ever in Douglas County or at some of the events that I put on for the House and Senate, I would love to meet you.

Regards,
Pat

How is Hassan, a Muslim, taking over the country? You still have not articulated on why you believe he "taking over". You sound like a xenophobe.

Have you read the koran? You would then know the answer to the question.

That's fine, I'm not going to get into an abusive email situation with you.

You know all of our disappointment in your press release.
I wish you well.

Of course I read the Koran, but it doesn't mean that all Muslims are out to bomb Americans. Judas Priest. The Muslim terrorists who bombed our buildings want Americans to fear, and after 10 years it looks like they have done a number on Americans like you where you believe all Muslims are bad.

I am against Muslim terrorists, but I do NOT believe Hassan is a terrorist.

Terrorists want Americans to continue to fear, and destroy at our freedoms, and people like you who continue to live in fear from some sort of an "invasion" is not healthy, NOR is it "Christian-like". Don't you remember Christ sitting down with tax payers and helping the prostitutes who broke the law? Don't you remember how the Pharisees and the Saducess criticized Jesus for one of his own breaking the Sabbath Day law when he was hungry and picked from the fields to appease his hunger?

At some point, GOPers like you need to snap out of your fear, and love your "neighbor". Hassan is no terrorist, and your initial email makes you sound like a xenophobe. You give the GOP a bad name. I hope you leave the Party while we restore it to the Party of Abe Lincoln, because your comments are making him roll in his grave right now.
